

MATT BEATTY

President, Military & Government Markets Carlson Wagonlit Travel – North America

As President of Carlson Wagonlit Travel | SatoTravel, Matt Beatty oversees all operations and sets the strategic direction for this important part of CWT's business, which is responsible for soliciting and managing travel for U.S. military and government clients, including those based overseas.

With nearly 20 years of experience in a variety of areas within CWT and Carlson, including supplier management, industry consulting and analysis, financial accounting, and internal audit, Matt brings a wealth of travel industry knowledge to the military and government sector.

Prior to his current role, Matt served as Vice President, Global Supplier Management for CWT.

Matt is a member of CWT's North American Executive team and reports directly to Håkan Ericsson, President, CWT North America and Latin America.

Matt graduated with honors from Luther College in Decorah, Iowa with degrees in both accounting and economics.