

Carlson Wagonlit Travel Names Cindy Fisher to the Position of Vice President, Global Sales for North America

MINNEAPOLIS, MINNESOTA, November 28, 2007 — Carlson Wagonlit Travel (CWT), the world's leading travel management company, has appointed Cindy Fisher to the position of vice president, Global Sales for North America, effective immediately. She is responsible for leading the team that pursues business development opportunities with large global and multinational companies headquartered in North America.

Ms. Fisher will continue to be based in the United States and will report to Cathy Voss, who was recently named executive vice president, Global Account Solutions, effective January 1, 2008.

A CWT employee since 1984, Ms. Fisher has held a variety of positions in local and regional operations management, as well as account management and sales. In her most recent position in Global Sales, she played a leading role in winning new global clients, as well as developing relationships with existing clients.

Commenting on this appointment, Ms. Voss said, "Cindy Fisher understands the intricacy of effective travel management on a global basis. She has played a key role in expanding our global client portfolio and is committed to helping clients reach their objectives. Her sense of service has helped clients optimize their travel program and has resulted in significant levels of client satisfaction and retention."
